About the Speaker

SY Kok, a retired senior partner of a Malaysian law firm, has a wealth of experience in conveyancing and commercial practice. He has written extensively on land matters with more than 30 articles published in various journals. He is also the author of the highly-acclaimed Law Governing the Housing Industry and The Torrens System and Equitable Principles. He is passionate about the subjects covered in those books, and after some four decades of legal practice, is well-placed to give insight that will help participants understand the proper workings of the Torrens system.
