About the speakers:

Karen Abraham is Joint Head of Department of the Intellectual Property Practice of Shearn Delamore & Co. She sits on the Board of Directors of the International Trademark Association (New York) and the International Association for the Protection of Intellectual Property (Zurich). Her practice covers all areas of intellectual property and information technology law, focusing on intellectual property litigation and enforcement. She negotiates and advises on the exploitation and enforcement of intellectual property rights for local businesses as well as leading multinational companies throughout the world.

Brian Law Yew Foo is a senior associate with Wong & Partners and a registered trade mark, design and patent agent in Malaysia. His focus is on trade mark and copyright protection, especially in enforcement of such rights. His portfolio includes all aspects of intellectual property litigation. He is Chairperson of the Bar Council Intellectual Property Committee, and Vice President of the Licensing Executives Society Malaysia ("LESM").
