The Continuing Professional Development Department is organising a talk on Islamic finance that will focus on current issues, cases on Islamic banking documentation, and contract financing. The speakers will also address the latest trends in Islamic sukuk, with emphasis on the key aspects of the transaction documentation as well as salient terms and conditions.

About the Speakers

Dr Aznan Hasan is an Assistant Professor in Islamic law and the former head of the Islamic Law Department, Ahmad Ibrahim Kulliyah of Laws, International Islamic University Malaysia. He also holds the following positions, among others:

- ♦ President, Association of Shariah Advisors in Islamic Finance ("ASAS")
- ♦ Deputy Chairman, Shariah Advisory Council, Securities Commission
- ♦ Chairman, Shariah Advisory Board, Barclays Capital (Dubai)
- ♦ Member of several local and international financial institutions and corporate bodies such as Amanah Raya Berhad and Employee Provident Fund ("EPF")
- ♦ Shariah consultant to Maybank Investment Bank
- ♦ Registered Shariah Advisor for the Islamic Unit Trust schemes and Islamic securities, Securities Commission of Malaysia
- ♦ Member, National International Zakat Organisation Coordination Committee, an advisory body established under the Prime Minister's Department

Mohd Johan Lee is an advocate and solicitor, and the managing partner of J Lee & Associates, a medium-size legal firm in Malaysia.

He graduated with an LLB (Hons) degree from International Islamic University. He also holds a Master of Comparative Laws degree and a postgraduate Diploma in Shariah and Legal Practice, both of which are from International Islamic University Malaysia, as well as an MA degree in Economics for Competition Law from King's College, London.

He is currently a qualified arbitrator and mediator.
