The first part of this seminar will address recent developments in medical law, followed by a discussion that focuses on common practice issues faced by legal practitioners in this area of practice. This seminar is organised by the Bar Council Continuing Professional Development Department.

About the Speakers

Raja Eileen Soraya is a partner with Messrs Raja, Darryl & Loh. She is a civil litigator and her areas of focus include medical and media law. She has been recognised for her work in the area of dispute resolution in the 2014 and 2015 issues of The Legal 500 Asia Pacific.

Her practice in medical law includes the defence of doctors and hospitals at civil trials, arguments at appellate levels and representations of medical practitioners at disciplinary inquiries. She also regularly advises doctors and hospitals on the various legal and ethical aspects of healthcare. The Vice-President (Legal) of the Medico-Legal Society of Malaysia, Raja Eileen is frequently invited to lecture on medico-legal matters and was a regular contributor to the Medical Tribune.

Raja Eileen graduated from The London School of Economics and Political Science, London, with a Bachelor of Laws degree with Honours in 1993, and was called to the English Bar. She is a member of the Honourable Society of the Inner Temple in London. She spent a year reading in the Chambers of Farrars Building, London, before she returned to Malaysia and was admitted as an advocate and solicitor of the High Court of Malaya in 1997.

Joni Benedict is an associate with Messrs Raja, Darryl & Loh where she is part of the firm's medico-legal practice group. Her current civil litigation practice is focused on medical and administrative law.

Her work in medical law includes the defence of medical practitioners and medical centres at civil and quasi-criminal trials and the representation of medical practitioners at disciplinary inquiries. She is regularly involved in civil trials and appeals in the Appellate Courts. Joni also advises medical practitioners and medical centres on issues relating to the legal and ethical aspects of healthcare.

Joni graduated from Cardiff University with a Bachelor of Laws degree with Honours in 2009, and was later called to the English Bar in 2010 as a member of the Honourable Society of the Middle Temple in London. Upon her return to Malaysia, Joni read in the chambers of Messrs Raja, Darryl & Loh and was later admitted as an advocate and solicitor of the High Court of Malaya in 2011.
