Calling all young lawyers and pupils in chambers!

The Bar Council National Young Lawyers Committee (“NYLC”) is organising a talk entitled “Law of Reinsurance”. The law of reinsurance is in a language of its own, and can be an intimidating prospect for the unwary newcomer. Technical jargon such as “non-proportional facultative reinsurance”, “quota share treaty reinsurance”, “catastrophe excess of loss treaty”, and “bordereaux” appear daunting and complex to the uninitiated. However, this talk proposes to discuss and hopefully elucidate some of the key terminology concerning reinsurance. Speaking the language of reinsurance will shed light on the key legal concepts and principles surrounding reinsurance as well, including the “notice-prejudice rule” and the “follow the settlements/fortunes clause”. The relationship between reinsurance and arbitration will also be studied, especially in light of the recent Court of Appeal decision in Ace Jerneh Insurance v Best Re (L) Ltd.
