

Introductory Seminar on Disputes in the Construction Industry and Alternative Dispute Resolution Process

5 June 2012 (Tuesday) | 8:30 am to 3:00 pm

Kuala Lumpur Bar Auditorium, 10th Floor, Wisma Kraftangan
No 9 Jalan Tun Perak, 50050 Kuala Lumpur

About the Speakers

Belden Premaraj is the Vice President of the Malaysian Institute of Arbitrators ("MIArB"). A Fellow of MIArB and the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, United Kingdom, he is on the panel of arbitrators at the Kuala Lumpur Regional Centre for Arbitration ("KLRC") and MIArB. He has also been certified by the Association for Overseas Technical Scholarship ("AOTS") of Japan for commercial arbitration in Asian countries. The principal partner of Messrs Belden, Belden Premaraj is a legal and claims consultancy practitioner in construction and engineering, oil and gas, and energy and utility industries. A member of the Bar Council Subcommittee on Construction Law, he is actively involved in the Society of Construction Law, Malaysia. He has delivered and published many papers on matters relating to law and practice within the construction industry and is a well-known speaker at conferences and seminars. He actively instructs counsel in his areas of practice, where he heads a dispute resolution team of technically qualified and trained support personnel. He also advises corporations on their contracting procurement, project planning and management policies. He frequently conducts risk management training for many corporations involved in his areas of practice.

Shanthi Supramaniam is a partner in Messrs Belden, a litigation and arbitration practice in Kuala Lumpur with a focus on construction law. She graduated from the National University of Singapore in 1998, and was admitted to practise in Singapore as well as Malaysia. She spent her initial years of practice in Singapore handling a variety of civil litigation claims, before focusing her practice on construction law. She is a Fellow and council member of MIArB, and a council member of the Society of Construction Law (Kuala Lumpur and Selangor).

Adrian See Jooi Hong has been practising in areas of construction and engineering, oil and gas, and energy and utilities since being called to the Malaysian Bar. He has participated in the Philip C Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition and the Asian Law Students' Association debating tournament in 2007, where he displayed sound oratory ability.
