Wisma Badan Peguam Malaysia

(Formerly known as Wisma Straits Trading)

Unit 2-02A, 2nd Floor

2 Leboh Pasar Besar, 50050 Kuala Lumpur

Claimable under the CPD Scheme

This activity carries 9 CPD points for the entire series / 3 CPD points for each session

This series will cover high-level principles as generally applied in common law jurisdictions, and will include some civil law comparisons. The participants will develop an understanding of the broad principles of banking and finance laws, and also an Islamic banking and finance perspective. The series starts at a basic level, and will take participants through key practical aspects of the various banking and finance transactions.

23 Apr 2018 (Monday)

CPD Code:

About the Speaker

Azlin Ahmad advises on banking and finance matters, with a focus on Islamic financing.

With a background in conventional banking and finance, Azlin specialises in the field of Shariah-compliant banking and financing. She has extensive experience in both conventional and Islamic financing transactions, handling a variety of matters for retail and corporate clients, and representing both the borrowers and financial institutions.

Originally from Kuala Lumpur, Azlin practised in Kuala Lumpur for a number of years before relocating to the United Arab Emirates (“UAE”), where she spent over a decade working primarily on Islamic financing matters.

She handles bilateral and syndicated financing, including project financing and private debt securities, as well as Islamic trust certificates (sukuk). Azlin is also highly experienced in structuring and drafting corporate and retail Islamic products for banks and financial institutions, and the documentation for such products has been widely adopted in the UAE and, prior to that, in Malaysia and Singapore. She has also assisted clients in their corporate debt restructuring exercises as well as acted as local counsel for numerous cross-border transactions that require advice from a UAE perspective. She was seconded to one of the local banks in the UAE, to assist in the setting up of its new legal department, which has given her a greater insight into clients’ commercial and operational requirements.

Azlin is qualified as a barrister in England and Wales, and has been admitted as an advocate and solicitor of the High Court of Malaya.
