About the Speakers

Roger Chin is an advocate of the High Court in Sabah and Sarawak, as well as a barrister and solicitor of the Supreme Court of Victoria, Australia. He graduated with an LLB and Bachelor of Commerce from University of Melbourne, Victoria, Australia. He is also a registered patent, trade mark and industrial design agent. He practises mainly in the areas of civil litigation and intellectual property ("IP").

Foong Cheng Leong is a lawyer focusing in the areas of IP, information technology, internet, social media and cyber laws; and franchise, privacy and data protection laws. He graduated from the University of Sheffield with honours and was called to the Malaysian Bar as an advocate and solicitor in 2005. He is the Chairman of the Kuala Lumpur Bar Information Technology Committee and a member of the Bar Council IP Committee.

Suaran Singh Sidhu holds an honours degree in Law from the University of London and Masters in Law from the London School of Economics. He has been in legal practice since 1999 when he qualified as an advocate and solicitor of the High Court of Malaya. He is the founding partner of Messrs Suaran & Sankey, where he handles cases and projects involving IP, information technology and commercial law. He also advises on legal matters in the fields of entertainment, media and communications. He actively gives talks, participates in forums and writes papers in his chosen fields of expertise. And he will go to great lengths for a good cup of chai.
