The personal information that you provide to the Johore Bar Committee, whether now or in the future, may be used, recorded, stored, disclosed or otherwise processed by or on behalf of the Johore Bar Committee for the purposes of facilitation and organisation of this event, research and audit, and maintenance of a participant database for the promotion of this event, and such ancillary services as may be relevant.

In light of queries from Members of the Bar on how to charge fees under the Solicitors' Remuneration Order 2005 ("SRO"), the Johore Bar Committee, in collaboration with the Bar Council Continuing Professional Development Department, is organising a workshop to provide guidance on the provisions of the SRO.

Participants are required to bring a copy of the SRO to the workshop.

Registration for the workshop will begin at 1:30 pm.

About the Speaker

Andrew Wong, a partner at Messrs Andrew Wong & Co, was called to the Malaysian Bar in 1978. He has served in various capacities in the Pahang Bar Committee and the Johore Bar Committee since 1983. He was a Bar Council member from 1987 to 1989, and chaired the Bar Council Conveyancing Practice Committee from 2008 to 2010. Andrew Wong has conducted briefings and seminars on conveyancing issues and on how to charge fees under the SRO for many State Bar Committees in Peninsular Malaysia.

Organised by the Johore Bar Committee in collaboration with the Bar Council Continuing Professional Development Department as part of the Regional Training Series 2014
