The Continuing Professional Development Department is organising a seminar that aims to educate participants on mergers and acquisitions.

Mergers and acquisitions are corporate transactions and represent one of the most important and attractive types of work for business lawyers. This seminar will address the following topics:

- Typical transactions;
- Documenting the deal;
- Managing the risks;
- Conducting due diligence; and
- Completing the deal.

Training Category: General | Suitable for all Members

About the Speaker

Kenny Poon is a senior partner of Messrs Jeff Leong, Poon & Wong in Kuala Lumpur and has been in active legal practice for over 20 years.

He read law at the University of Leeds in the UK and was called to the English Bar in 1990. He was then called to the Malaysian Bar in 1991 and the Singapore Bar in 1994. He practised for several years with a regional law firm in Singapore before returning to Malaysia in 1996.

Kenny has experience in advising initial public offering ("IPO") candidates and public-listed companies in fundraising and other corporate exercises including listings on foreign stock exchanges. He also has experience in advising on domestic and cross-border mergers and acquisitions, takeovers, corporate restructurings and schemes of arrangements, and has acted in acquisitions of banks and insurance companies.
