Dated 10 July 2013

To Members of the Malaysian Bar

Post-Election Series Seminar:
Electoral Reforms — Out with the Old, In with the New?

The Post-Election Series was kick-started on 8 June 2013 with a focus on the delineation exercise of electoral constituencies to be conducted by the Election Commission this year. The second seminar held on 29 June 2013 went on to discuss allegations of electoral fraud arising pre- and on election day on 5 May 2013.

Moving forward, the Bar Council Constitutional Law Committee and Human Rights Committee are co-organising the third seminar of the Series to discuss various issues relating to the possibilities of electoral reform in Malaysia.

The details of the seminar are as follows:
