PROGRAMME PREVIEW 4

IMLC 2018 – “Raising the Bar: Innovate. Integrate. Emulate” – spotlights innovations that can and will impact the legal community, and the need to embrace and integrate these innovations seamlessly. Emulating innovative trailblazers can make all the difference between merely surviving, and truly excelling, in the legal profession. The IMLC 2018 theme encapsulates the goal of empowering lawyers in the domestic and international spheres, to meet the modern challenges of internationalisation of legal services, as well as arming them to seize opportunities as they arise.

Breakout Session | Investigating International Financial Fraud

International financial fraud and money laundering have long had a material impact on national and international financial systems, with a global cost of roughly USD450 billion. How does international financial fraud happen, and why? How can it be prevented? What are the best ways to respond? This panel will draw on its experience in advising on fraud prevention and investigation, and delve into how institutions can be structured to mitigate against the risks, as well as the importance of the overall financial ecosystem in combating the menace.

Panellists: Helen Briant, Towers & Hamblins LLP, Birmingham, UK Abu Hassan Alshari Yahaya, Assistant Governor, Bank Negara Malaysia Andrew Chiew, Messrs Lee Hishammuddin Allen & Gledhill Colum Bancroft, Managing Director, AlixPartners, Hong Kong

Breakout Session | Written Submissions for Advocacy

Written work is no longer only a tool to supplement oral advocacy; it has become an integral part of legal proceedings. At all levels of litigation and arbitration, written advocacy is a primary means of presenting pleadings, evidence and arguments effectively, to capture the attention of judges and arbitrators. This session highlights key elements that make up effective written advocacy for interlocutory applications, and submissions after trial and at the appellate level, including applications for leave to appeal. The panellists will also explore matters of style and structure, visual presentation, and common mistakes made, as well as expectations of judges and arbitrators.

Working Group | Women in the Law: Congregate, Communicate, Collaborate

Women are already inextricably involved in the law – from lecture halls and court rooms, to boardrooms, national bar associations and all branches of government, women perform pivotal functions in developing the law and legal communities. Yet, in most countries fewer than a quarter of these women rise to the top in their professional sectors. As members of international and regional communities, what collaborative action can be taken to ensure that there is a level playing field and equal opportunities for women in all aspects of education, professional training and career options? The International Bar Association's recent "Women in Commercial Legal Practice Report" will provide a starting point for these discussions.

Speakers: Kieran Pender, Legal Advisor, Legal Policy and Research Unit, International Bar Association Christina Blacklaws, President-Elect, The Law Society of England and Wales Anne Abraham, Chairman, Lead Women, Kuala Lumpur Rashda Rana SC (QC), Head, RANA IDRS, London and Sydney

Moderator: Preetha Pillai, Litigation Liaison Officer, International Bar Association-Asia Pacific Regional Forum; Messrs Skrine

Working Group | Data Protection in the Legal Community

There are now innumerable global laws and regulations about the protection and retention of data, and failure to comply can result in liability – even criminal liability. The global legal community must collectively identify how to implement effective policies responsibly, and proactively fulfil the obligations that arise. The German Federal Bar Association will provide insights on how this is achieved in Europe through specific regulations and directives by the European Union. The discussions will cover data protection requirements for lawyers and law firms in a digitised environment; international client data transfers; and the need for sector-specific Data Protection Officers ("DPO") nominated by the law society, who are independent of public administration, to guarantee the law society's autonomy.

Speakers: Klaus M Brisch, Member, Data Protection Section, Federal German Bar Association Jeremiah Gurusamy, Messrs Koh Dipendra Jeremiah Law

Session Host: Bundesrechtsanwaltskammer (The German Federal Bar)
