Share Your Legal Practice Problems with Us!

The Bar Council Small Firms Committee (“SFC”) aims to assist small law firms to operate and manage their firms in a more effective and efficient manner in order for them to achieve their full potential.

The SFC would like feedback from practitioners in small law firms regarding the problems they faced in running their firms, and the types of assistance that would be of use. The SFC will do its utmost to assist Members to resolve or alleviate the difficulties.

The SFC also invites Members to put forward suggestions concerning activities or events that could be organised in the 2016/2017 term to benefit small law firms.
