On 25 Oct 2013, the Malaysian Government announced that the Goods and Services Tax ("GST") will be implemented on 1 Apr 2015. GST is set to replace the current sales and services tax. In light of the latest development, the Penang Bar Committee, in collaboration with the Bar Council Continuing Professional Development ("CPD") Department, is organising a seminar to educate Members of the Bar regarding the GST.

The seminar will cover the following areas:

- (1) Key GST principles;
- (2) Scope and charges to tax;
- (3) Case studies (in relation to GST);
- (4) Comparative legislation;
- (5) Criminal provisions; and
- (6) Implications on law firms.

Registration for the seminar will begin at 9:00 am.

About the Speakers

Anand Raj was admitted as an advocate and solicitor of the High Court of Malaya in October 1996 and has been a partner of Messrs Shearn Delamore & Co since 2003. He is a member of the Executive Committee of the International Fiscal Association (Malaysia Branch), the Chairperson of the Bar Council Tax Subcommittee, the former Chairperson of the Tax Committee of the American Malaysian Chamber of Commerce, and a member of the Bar Council Competition Law Subcommittee.

Nur Diyana Ahmad Fauzi is a senior consultant and has been with PricewaterhouseCoopers ("PwC") for more than eight years with experience in corporate and personal tax compliance and consultation. She was involved in assisting companies with various appeal and incentive applications, real property gains tax and stamp duty matters. She has serviced a wide range of clients in manufacturing, trading, health care and logistics industries. Apart from tax compliance, she is experienced in organising and conducting workshops/seminars for clients and non-clients. She has also assisted companies during tax field audits by tax authorities. She has also worked on numerous GST implementation projects for clients in various industry sectors. She has been nominated and selected to participate in the MIM-Masterskill Tun Razak Youth Leadership Award ("MIM-TRYLA") Programme in 2009. She holds a Bachelor of Accounting degree from International Islamic University of Malaysia, and is a member of Malaysian Institute of Accountants ("MIA") and the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants ("ACCA").
