

Talk on

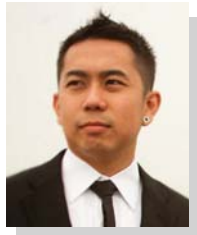

Use of Technology amongst Lawyers

6 Dec 2011 (Tuesday) | 3:00 pm to 5:00 pm

Raja Aziz Addruse Auditorium, Bar Council, No 15 Leboh Pasar Besar, 50050 Kuala Lumpur

Registration fees | Members of the Bar RM100 | Pupils RM80 | Law Students RM50 | Non-Members RM150

About the Speaker:

Foong Cheng Leong is a lawyer at the Intellectual Property and Information Technology Department of Messrs Lee Hishammuddin Allen & Gledhill.

He graduated from University of Sheffield, United Kingdom, with honours and was called to the Malaysian Bar as an advocate and solicitor in 2005. He is also a registered trademarks, patents and industrial designs agent.

A member of the Bar Council Intellectual Property Committee, Foong Cheng Leong was also the Deputy Chairperson of the Kuala Lumpur Bar Information Technology Committee. He regularly assists Bar Council and Kuala Lumpur Bar on matters regarding intellectual property, internet law and data protection.

Synopsis:

Foong Cheng Leong had his first computer when he was seven years old. Throughout the years, he discovered the wonders of electronic devices and familiarised himself with programming, and website and graphics designs. In this talk, he will introduce some tools and practices to help lawyers utilise technology in relation to their profession. He will give tips on how to work on electronic databases, including how an e-Library can be established. He will also introduce software and devices such as the DropBox, Google Desktop and iPad, and highlight how they can be used to assist lawyers in their daily work.

Being a social media enthusiast himself, Foong Cheng Leong will speak on the use of social media tools such as blogs, Facebook and Twitter in relation to the legal industry.

Participants are encouraged bring their own laptops, notebooks or tablets to make the talk more interactive. Wireless internet connection will be provided during the talk.
