

Seminar on

Doing Business in China - The Nuts and Bolts

15 October 2009 (Thursday) | 6:00 pm - 8:00 pm | Bar Council Auditorium (1st Floor)

Registration fees | Members of the Bar RM100 | Pupils RM50 | Non-Members RM150

Will Fung, an Advocate & Solicitor of the High Court of Malaya, has been practising law in China for several years and is presently a Senior Foreign Counsel/Partner in the Grandall Legal Group, Beijing. During his time in Beijing, Will has been involved mainly in corporate and commercial law and advises foreign clients on mergers and acquisitions, in particular issues pertaining to foreign direct investment projects in China.

As part of the Malaysian Bar International Practice Series, Will Fung will speak on the legal and practical aspects of doing business in China. He will be speaking on the legal framework and structure in China and the various local government ministries and agencies that an investor or legal advisor will encounter in the business, and investment environment in China. He will also be speaking on the various laws and regulations pertaining to foreign investment, and sharing his views on the optimal business and investment strategies for doing business in China.
