The Bar Council Legal Tech, AI and Sandbox Committee (“Sandbox Committee”) will be organising a seminar titled “Artificial Intelligence and the Law – UK, EU, and Malaysia”. This seminar aims to promote greater awareness and understanding of legal developments surrounding artificial intelligence (“AI”) in the United Kingdom, European Union, and Malaysia.

This event will:

- Provide comparative insights into AI regulations and the legal framework in the UK, EU, and Malaysia;
- Facilitate knowledge sharing and dialogue among legal professionals and relevant stakeholders;
- Support capacity-building within the Malaysian legal community on AI-related legal issues; and
- Encourage responsible and informed discourse on AI governance and its implications on the legal profession in Malaysia.

SPEAKERS

Joanne Vengadesan

Joanne Vengadesan is a commercial, information technology and data protection partner at Penningtons Manches Cooper LLP, heading the technology sector group of the firm. She focuses on commercial contracts in the technology sector, transactional intellectual property issues, and data protection. She is on the board of Multilaw, a global technology law network, and is the global chair of its inclusion and diversity committee. Her previous roles include serving as chancellor of the Multilaw Academy, co-chair of the Multilaw intellectual property and technology group, and chair of the data protection committee for iTechLaw. She is ranked as a leading technology lawyer in the United Kingdom (“UK”) by Chambers and Partners and Legal 500 directories, and as a thought leader on data protection matters for the UK in Who’s Who Legal.

A significant amount of her work is international, working particularly with clients in North America, France, and India. She is also legally qualified and has practised in Malaysia as an advocate and solicitor.

Pauline Khor Hong Ping

Pauline Khor Hong Ping heads the intellectual property (“IP”) and technology department and is a member of the technology, media, and telecommunications practice group of Rahmat Lim & Partners. She has advised on matters spanning the full spectrum of IP, information technology, and ancillary rights in Malaysia. Pauline is included in the Legal 500 Intellectual Property Hall of Fame and is a recognised IP practitioner by Asia IP Profiles, AsiaLaw, Benchmark Litigation, Chambers Asia-Pacific, IAM Patent 1000, Managing Intellectual Property, Who’s Who Legal, and World Trademark Review 1000. Pauline is currently the Director of the Asian Patent Attorneys Association (“APAA”) Malaysia Berhad and also the Co-Chair of the Copyright Standing Committee for APAA headquarters.

MODERATOR

Imran b Ismail

Imran b Ismail is a partner at Melanie, where he navigates the complexities of dispute resolution and corporate transactions. Passionate about data privacy, cybersecurity, and intellectual property law, he enjoys sharing his knowledge as a lecturer and speaker. A firm believer in the power of technology, Imran embraces innovative tools to enhance his legal practice. When he’s not immersed in law, you’ll likely find him indulging in his love for gaming — where strategy, creativity, and quick thinking all come into play.

Imran is also a member of the Sandbox Committee.
