Breakout Session 9

30 Oct 2026 (Friday) | 9:00 am to 10:15 am

The Role of Bar Associations and the Future of Core Principles

This session will examine the position of core principles in relation to the legal profession amid evolving landscapes in the legal system and the wider society. The panellists will address the role of Bar associations in this climate and the steps Bar associations could take to maintain institutional mandates and founding obligations. Delegates will hear both local and foreign perspectives on the topic.

Join us for this timely discussion and gain insights into the evolving role of Bar associations in the current socio-legal landscape.
