Breakout Session 1

28 Oct 2026 (Wednesday) | 10:45 am to 12:00 pm

Legal Professional Privilege and Regulatory Authorities: Where is the Line in Modern Legal Practice?

Legal professional privilege is a cornerstone of the legal profession. However, as regulatory environments evolve, the absolute nature of this privilege is increasingly tested by the exercise of investigative powers of enforcement authorities. This session explores the shifting boundary between a client's right to confidential legal advice and the statutory mandates of regulators.

Join us to gain valuable insights on the position of legal professional privilege in an evolving regulatory framework.
