This year, the Bar Council Tax and Customs Committee, in collaboration with the Malaysian Bar Continuing Professional Development ("CPD") Department, continues its commitment to promoting greater awareness and understanding of taxpayers' rights, the powers of tax authorities, and the legal avenues available to challenge the unlawful or excessive exercising of those powers.

This initiative aims to equip Members of the Bar with the knowledge and practical insights necessary to navigate Malaysia's evolving tax landscape, while encouraging greater participation in tax and customs practice. It also seeks to strengthen the Malaysian Bar's role in safeguarding taxpayers' rights and ensuring accountability in the exercise of statutory powers by the Inland Revenue Board of Malaysia, Royal Malaysian Customs Department, Ministry of Finance, Ministry of Investment, Trade and Industry, and other relevant authorities.

Against the backdrop of Malaysia's Budget 2027, the committee is organising the seventh edition of its annual post-Budget event, bringing together experienced practitioners from the legal and accounting professions to examine key tax developments, legislative changes and their practical implications.

Members are strongly encouraged to participate in this engaging and informative session, which offers a valuable opportunity to gain practical insights, exchange perspectives, and deepen their understanding of Malaysia's evolving tax landscape and its broader legal and commercial implications.
