(11) What are the consequences of failure to remit the required payments?

No SAPC will be issued to an advocate and solicitor in the event of failure to remit the required payments.

We draw your attention to section 36(1) of the LPA, which reads as follows:

Subject to this section, no person shall practise as an advocate and solicitor or do any act as an advocate and solicitor unless his name is on the Roll and he has a valid practicing [sic] certificate authorizing him to do the act; a person who is not so qualified is in this Act referred to as an “unauthorized person”.

(12) If I resume practice and only require a Practising Certificate for a certain period in the year, can a discount or refund be obtained?

An advocate and solicitor who resumes practice at any time from 1 Jan to 30 June 2026 (inclusive) must pay the full amount totalling RM1,297.24, as there is no provision for a discount or a refund. An advocate and solicitor who resumes practice at any time from 1 July to 31 Dec 2026 (inclusive) is required to pay RM50 (instead of RM100) towards the Compensation Fund. All other required amounts must be paid in full. Please refer to item (9) above for more details.

(13) I was issued with Sijil Annual 2026, and I then ceased practice on 15 Jan 2026. What payments am I required to make for the year 2026?

An advocate and solicitor who ceases practice at any time from 1 Jan to 31 Dec 2026 (inclusive) is required to pay the sum of RM1,137.24, being payment for:
