Do you have the skills to draft a good service agreement? The ability to draft a clear, concise, and well-structured service agreement is crucial as the document defines the contractual relationship between a lawyer and his/her client. By joining this webinar, you will not only gain a better understanding of the types of service agreements that are available, but you will also be taught how to draft a service agreement, how to determine and negotiate fees with your client, as well as learn what are the common mistakes that occur when drafting the agreement.

Speaker

Ahmad Shahrizal Abdul Aziz was admitted as an advocate and solicitor of the High Court of Malaya in September 2010. After amassing experience at a commercial practice in Kuala Lumpur, Shah set up his own practice.

Shah practises in all areas of civil litigation with an emphasis on corporate and commercial litigation, corporate insolvency, probate and trust matters, professional negligence, debt recovery, and interlocutory reliefs and remedies.

Shah has appeared in all tiers of the courts in Malaysia both as lead counsel and as junior counsel. Shah also served on the Olympic Council of Malaysia's Legal and Alternative Dispute Resolution team from 2013 to 2017.

Upon successful registration, a link to the webinar will be emailed to registered participants only. Registration will close on 22 June 2023 (Thursday) at 12:00 pm.

Please note that no additional registration will be accepted once the closing date has passed, or if the webinar is full (whichever comes first).
