China- South Asia Legal Training Base

In order to strengthen mutual understanding and friendship as well as deepen practical cooperation between China-South Asia legal fields, China Law Society is going to hold the 5th Course of China-South Asia Legal Training Base from September 17 to 28, 2020.

China Law Society is the largest nationwide legal academic organization in China. It assembles elites in legal field from all over the country, and has close working relationships with judicial organs, prosecutorial organs, law firms, law schools and legal departments of enterprises. China Law Society is also the main channel of international legal exchange. It has established strong connection with approximately 800 legal organizations in about 100 countries and regions, and has now signed cooperation memorandums with 132 important legal institutions and organizations in 95 countries and regions.

The China-South Asia Legal Training Base aims to promote legal information exchanges and personnel exchanges, enhance mutual trust and understanding between Chinese and South Asian legal professionals, and it has been successfully held 4 times since 2016. Over 80 judges, prosecutors, lawyers, legal scholars and officials have participated in this program. The China-South Asia Legal Training Base has made its contribution to improving China-South Asia legal environment and building a Community of a shared future for Mankind.

Considering the inconvenience of international travel during the pandemic, the 5th Course will be held online. This Course will include opening ceremony, daily lectures (1-2 hours per day), and a half-day panel discussion. The language used during the Course will be English. We will invite famous experts in China to provide video lectures on the following topics:

- Characteristics and Innovation of the Civil Code of China
- Chinese Public Health Emergency Management System
- Legal Guarantee of the Belt and Road Initiative
- Foreign Investment Protection Law and Its Practice in China
- International Commercial Arbitration Court of China

- The Smart Court in China
 - The International Arbitration System of China
 - The Chinese Market of Legal Service
 - Legal Culture of China

Please be kindly advised that it is free to attend the program, and we will take in 50 participants this year. If you are interested in participating in this program, or taking some of the lectures, please send us your personal information, including your name, age, position, nationality, and contact information. Certificates will be issued to participants who complete the program and submit a thesis.
