LEGAL OFFICER

The Bar Council is inviting applications for the post of Legal Officer. The responsibilities of a Legal Officer are multifaceted and include legal research, contract review, and managing legal actions by and against the Malaysian Bar. This role will challenge and exasperate you at times, but you will be part of a team that is pivotal in the work of the Malaysian Bar. In addition to attending to various legal matters concerning the organisation, you should expect to work on matters of public interest and the Malaysian legal system.

If you have at least 3 qualities from column A and 3 from column B below, you should apply for this role.

To apply, send your detailed curriculum vitae to hr@malaysianbar.org.my.
