OVERVIEW

The session shall encompass the following topics:

(1) the fundamentals required to mount a claim;
(2) the defences (both expected and unexpected);
(3) recent and current developments; and
(4) the practicalities of related matters.

SPEAKER

Dee Wei is a partner of Choo Dee Wei. A member of Lincoln's Inn in the United Kingdom, he was called to the Bar of England and Wales in 2005. He was subsequently admitted as an advocate and solicitor of the High Court of Malaya in 2007. On 1 July 2020, the firm Choo Dee Wei was established. Currently in his 18th year of practice in the litigation ecosystem, he has seen his fair share (and at times more) of cases, ranging from the straightforward to the unusual, where the area of defamation is a prime example of his experience.

Terms and Conditions

Materials will be emailed only. No printed notes will be provided.

No recording of the event is permitted via any means at any time.

No part of the event content may be used / reproduced in any form without the written and explicit consent of the Bar Council and speaker(s).

Registration will be confirmed once proof of payment is received and will be allocated on a first come, first serve basis.

The registration for this session will close on 27 Nov 2024 (Wednesday), at 12:00 pm. Cancellations must be made in writing. There will be no refunds for cancellations made fewer than seven working days before the session but substitutions are allowed.

No additional registration will be accepted once the closing date has passed, or if the CPD event is full.

The CPD Department may not permit future registration if you fail to attend a CPD event after registering unless you provide acceptable and valid reasons.

The organiser reserves the right to modify, cancel or postpone the event, should circumstances arise that make such action necessary, whereupon all registration fees paid will be refunded.

Points for the CPD Scheme will not be awarded to Members of the Bar and pupils in chambers who arrive more than 15 minutes late, are not present throughout the event, or leave before its scheduled end.
