To All Members of the Bar

FOREIGN LAWYERS MAY BE ALLOWED TO PRACTISE IN MALAYSIA SOON - COME AND ATTEND DIALOGUE AS IT WILL AFFECT YOU!

A dialogue will be held with Bank Negara regarding the Malaysian International Islamic Financial Centre (MIFC) initiative and the issue of admission of foreign lawyers. The MIFC is a government-launched initiative to make Malaysia an international Islamic financial hub, where Islamic finance services and products will be offered by a diversified range of financial institutions from anywhere in Malaysia in any currency to non-residents and residents alike. The dialogue will focus on the issue of whether foreign lawyers should be allowed to practise in Malaysia under the MIFC initiative.

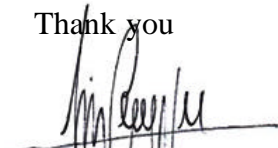

Details of the dialogue -

Date : Tuesday 11 September 2007
Venue : Bunga Raya Meeting Room
18th Floor, Block A
Bank Negara Malaysia
Time : 2.30p.m.

The dialogue is open to all members of the Bar.

To assist Bank Negara in making the arrangements for the dialogue, we need to know the number of members who will be attending the dialogue. In view of this, please inform Alawiyah at the Bar Council Secretariat at 03 - 20313003 (extn 177) or alawiyah@malaysianbar.org.my by 3.00p.m. Monday 10 September 2007 if you are attending the dialogue.

Thank you

- Lim Chee Wee
Secretary
