Program Outline and Participation Requirements of

The Training Program on Corporate Governance for Asian Countries [ASCG]

21 – 29 February 2008

Tokyo, Japan

1. BACKGROUND

AOTS - the Association for Overseas Technical Scholarship - is a non-profit association run with Japanese Government subsidies from the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry (METI). Since its establishment in 1959, AOTS has been conducting various technical and management training programs in Japan for the people of developing countries. The total number of participants in past AOTS training programs amounts to almost 136,000 from about 170 developing countries and regions. These former participants are playing very important roles in industry and contributing greatly to the economic development of their respective countries.

At the request of former participants of AOTS training programs as well as the industrial and business circles in developing countries, AOTS has been organizing various training programs to meet their needs for successful industrialization.

The Japan Federation of Bar Associations and the International Bar Association (IBA), which has a membership of 15,000 lawyers and more than 190 bar associations, and AOTS has been implementing the Training Program on Commercial Arbitration and Competition Law Enforcement as one of the main activities of the Bar Issues Commission (BIC) since 2005. So far 37 participants from Asian countries have participated in this training program.

The formulation of a corporate law system has progressed corporate governance, particularly of public companies, has been improved in Asia along with the increase in WTO membership after the Asian currency crisis. However, considering that the lack of transparency in SMEs is shared among many countries, AOTS will organize the training program on Corporate Governance this year. Enhancing the legislation of corporate law and developing human resources engaged in practical enforcement will contribute to the sound development of the Asian economy.

PART 5: Overseas Travel Insurance Procedure and Consent Form

Overseas Travel Insurance Procedure

The Association for Overseas Technical Scholarship ("AOTS") maintains overseas travel insurance ("insurance") coverage for all trainees as a safeguard against illness, injury, accident, or other misfortune.
The term of the insurance is limited to a fixed period approved by AOTS. The said term shall commence upon completion of entry screening procedures following the trainee's arrival in Japan and terminate upon completion of exit procedures prior to the trainee's departure from Japan.
In the event that a trainee is involved in an accident or other incident covered by the insurance, AOTS will submit an insurance claim to the insurance company, and the insurance will be paid as follows.

1. Indemnity in the event of death: The insurance company will pay the entire sum to the trainee's beneficiary as defined under the country's probate laws of the trainee.
2. Medical expenses: The medical facility where the trainee was treated will bill AOTS for the cost of the treatment. The insurance company will pay the insurance benefit directly to the medical facility.
3. Insurance for disability: AOTS will pay the disabled trainee the entire sum received the insurance company.
4. Insurance to cover liability: AOTS will pay the entire settlement to the trainee, injured party, etc., pursuant to notification by the trainee or the training company.
5. Insurance to cover loss of personal belongings: AOTS will pay the trainee the entire sum received from the insurance company, pursuant to notification by the trainee or the training company.
6. Rescue expenses insurance benefit: AOTS will pay to the party that paid/advanced the expenses the entire sum received from the insurance company, pursuant to notification by the trainee or the training company.

To collect an insurance benefit/settlement as specified above, trainees must submit to AOTS a consent form giving AOTS complete authority to file insurance claims and collect benefits/settlements pursuant to this insurance policy. All trainees, please carefully read the attached Outline of Overseas Travel Insurance and sign the consent form below.

Outline of Overseas Travel Insurance

The Association for Overseas Technical Scholarship [AOTS] provides insurance coverage against illness, injury, or death for trainees during the training period.
The insurance provisions are summarized below. If you have any questions, contact AOTS.

1. Type of coverage and amount to be paid

(1) Indemnity in the event of death

Insurance will be paid in the event of a trainee's death within 180 days after an accident resulting in a fatal injury, or in the event of death due to an illness contracted during the course of training. The insurance company will pay the entire sum to the trainee's beneficiary as defined under the country's probate laws of the trainee. Amount to be paid: ¥5 million)

(2) Insurance for disability resulting from an injury

Insurance will be paid in the event that a trainee is injured in an accident, as the result of which the trainee develops a disability within 180 days of the accident.
Amount to be paid: 3% to 100% of ¥5 million, depending upon the severity of the disability

(3) Insurance to cover treatment costs

Treatment costs will be covered when a trainee must receive medical treatment as the result of an accident, or when a trainee must receive medical treatment for an illness.
Since funds are paid through the Association directly to the medical institution, the trainee is not required to make provisional payments for medical expenses.
Amount to be paid: Treatment costs (up to ¥3 million)

(4) Insurance to cover liability

When a trainee is legally liable to pay compensation for injuries caused to another person or damage to another person's property, the insurance will cover the amount of damage for which a trainee is liable.
However, coverage does not include accidents occurring during training activities.
Amount to be paid: Damage liability amount (up to ¥10 million)

(5) Insurance to cover loss of personal belongings

The insurance covers loss of any personal belongings destroyed or stolen during the time in which a trainee is not at their residence (including during the hours of training).
However, it will covered only his or her personal belongings.
Amount to be paid: The lesser of the market value of, or the cost to repair, the item in question
(up to ¥150,000: up to ¥100,000 per item)

(6) Rescue expenses

If during the training period, a trainee dies as the result of an injury or illness, is missing due to an accident, or is hospitalized for three or more days, necessary rescue expenses (transportation, accommodation, etc.) will be paid from the insurance benefit/settlement.
Amount to be paid: Actual costs. Note that certain types of expenses will be covered only in part (up to a total of ¥3 million).

2. Submitting an insurance claim

The Association will submit applications for insurance claims. Report any injury or illness as soon as possible to the training company or to the Association.

3. Special notes

Please note that coverage excludes the following categories of events or conditions, which are further defined below:
Death, disability caused by an illness or injury, injury treatment costs, or rescue expenses involving any of the following:

(1) Injury or illness predating entry into Japan
(2) Injury or death resulting from fighting, suicide, or criminal behavior
However, in the event of suicide, rescue expenses will be covered.
(3) Injury or death resulting from driving without a license or under the influence of alcohol
(4) Injury or death resulting from brain disease or insanity
(5) Pregnancy, delivery, premature delivery or a miscarriage and illness due to this, a surgical operation, and other medical treatments.
(6) Dental treatment,etc.
However, the Association will pay for dental treatment costs for emergency treatment such as pain-killing, extraction, silver filling, tooth crown, etc., based on separately established standards.

Liability in any of the following cases:

(1) Accidents for which a trainee is liable that occur during training
(2) Accidents for which a trainee is liable, involving articles entrusted to the trainee by another person
(3) Automobile accidents for which a trainee is liable,etc.

Loss of personal belongings involving any of the following:

(1) Misplaced articles
(2) Loss of cash, contact lenses, or false teeth,etc.

Since coverage does not cover every type of accident, injury, illness, or loss, please take appropriate precautions to avoid accidents and damage to your health during the training period.
